The French have lately been very active in Northeast Thailand. They have distributed by means of their agents many propaganda tracts attacking the government of Ho Chi Minh and calling upon all Vietnamese to support the Central Government of General Xuan.*

25X1A

Comment: These propaganda leaflets were distributed at Udon and Ubon, the very center of Vietnamese concentrations in Thailand. The tone of this propaganda is not as clever as the Viet Minh propaganda and is not as effective.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
